CLAN McLEOD'S CONCERT.

A Rare Musical Treat offered at the Hyperion to-night.

The Lely concert, which takes place at the Hyperion to-night, promises to eclipse all previous musicals given under the auspices of Clan McLeod. Credit is due the clan in bringing to New Haven such artists as are to appear this evening, and there is little doubt but that their enterprise will be rewarded with a large house. Durdard Lely makes his farewell appearance at this concert previous to sailing for Europe to fulfill engagements with Madame Patti, whose favorite tenor he is. Master Charles Meehan of New York, who has been attracting considerable attention of late as a soprano, will make his first appearance at this concert. Seats are now on sale at the box office of the Hyperion. The sale is large. The following is the program:

Part I. Introductory remarks.....Mr. Lely

Piano forte—Selection of National Airs.....Mr. Lely

Song—Flow Gently, Sweet Afton.....Mrs. Lely

Song—Come Into the Garden, Maid.....Mr. Lely

Song—Leonore.....Master Meehan

Song—The Cruikshank Lament.....Mr. Lely

Song—Tom Bowling.....Mr. Lely

Love song (a)—If I But Knew.....Master Meehan

Part II. Song—McGregor's Gathering (by special request).....Mr. Lely

Song—The Minstrel Boy.....Mr. Lely

Song—Roy's Wife of Aldivaloch.....Mr. Lely

Serenade—Oh—To Be Near Thee.....Mr. Lely

Song—My Boy Tommy.....Mr. Lely

Song—Sally in Our Alley.....Mr. Lely

Auld Lang Syne.

COURT RECORD.

Superior Court—Civil Side—Judge S. O. Prentice.

In this court yesterday the trial of the libel suits brought against the Morning News by W. J. Atwater and Thomas H. Sullivan was begun and is still unfinished. The suits are the result of a publication in the paper in reference to the "Big Four." During the trial the deposition of Reuben B. Davenport, a former editor of the paper, will be read. The witnesses of the day were Alexander Craig, the business manager of the paper, and Patrick Kent, a former superintendent of streets. The latter, however, did not testify. The trial will be resumed this morning. Atwater and Sullivan each claim $10,000 damages.

Common Pleas Court—Civil Side—Judge Hotchkiss.

In this court yesterday the jury which has been trying the case of Frederick R. Swift, editor and proprietor of the Waterbury and Bridgeport Herald, against Peter Keeley of Waterbury to recover $1,000 damages rendered a verdict for the plaintiff to recover $35.50.

City Court—Criminal Side—Judge Cable.

John W. Grames, non-support, ordered to pay $2.50 a week or go to jail for 60 days; Charles H. Williams, drunk, $5 fine, $5.25 costs; breach of the peace, judgment suspended; William Flaherty and Frank Holbright, distributing hand bills on highway, $5 fine, $7.06 costs each; William Dugan, Matthew Kelly, distributing hand bills on highway, $5 fine, $5.43 costs each.

COURT NOTES.

The Consolidated road has withdrawn its appeal in its case against the Consumers' Ice company, which was decided in favor of the defendants' recovery of $15,000 for land taken by the road. The railroad enjoined the ice company from taking judgment, but their injunction was dismissed by Judge Hall last week.

In the Waterbury superior court, in session here, the trial of the suit brought by Hyatt Purcell of Boston against J. K. Smith of Waterbury was begun yesterday morning. The plaintiff seeks to recover a bill of $3,500 for cement furnished the defendant.

HENRY A. CHITTENDEN, SR.

Formerly a Merchant Here—A Native of Guilford—Pioneer of the Anti-Slavery Cause.

Henry A. Chittenden, sr., died at his residence in Montclair, N. J., yesterday morning. He was born in Guilford, Conn., April 19, 1816, was formerly a merchant of prominence in Hartford, in New Haven and in New York city. He was one of the pioneers of the anti-slavery movement, active in the "underground railroad system," aiding by contributions and services fugitive slaves to Canada and freedom, and for several years individually maintaining in Washington, D. C., a Congregational church devoted to the cause of free speech.

Mr. Chittenden was a brother of the late Simeon B. Chittenden, the famous millionaire merchant, who gave the Chittenden library to Yale and who, many years ago, was in business in New Haven and afterward changed his residence to Brooklyn and became one of the best known dry goods merchants in the country. He represented Brooklyn in congress several terms. One sister, Miss Anna Chittenden, survives and still lives in Brooklyn.

AN IMPORTANT WORK.

In Eliminating Grade Crossings in Providence.

The engineers of the New York, New Haven and Hartford road have just completed plans under the direction of Chief Engineer Curtiss for the four-tracking and the elimination of grade crossings in the route of the Providence division through the city of Boston.

Blue prints of these plans have been sent to the leading railroad contractors for estimates of the cost of construction, and it is reported that contracts for doing the work will be awarded in a few days, as it is the desire of the management to have this matter settled before President Clark and party start for Europe. They sail June 12.

This work will undoubtedly be the most expensive undertaken in any one place since the beginning of the reconstruction period of the road, which commenced with the election of Mr. Clark to the presidency. The cost of the work will be several millions of dollars.

FAIR HAVEN.

S. P. Thrasher of the law and order league will speak at the Y. M. C. A. rooms Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, subject, "The Young Man as a Citizen." An opportunity will be given at the close of the address to ask Mr. Thrasher questions along the line of his work in the city.

Mrs. Frank I. Hitchcock of Bridgeport who formerly lived here, has been visiting friends on Houston street. While here she attended the session of the Music Teachers' association festival.

On Sunday evening, June 2, Rev. N. G. Cheney will preach in the Methodist Episcopal church a special sermon in response to an invitation from the Woman's Christian Temperance union. The subject will be "A Vital Theme Connected With Total Abstinence." The public are invited.

The ladies of the W. C. T. U. will give a strawberry tea Wednesday evening, May 23.

The entertainment given by Hiram camp division, No. 14, S. of T., in their hall on Wednesday evening was an excellent one, and the program enthusiastically received. Cake and cream were served after the entertainment. Following is the program:

Piano duet, Miss Converse and Mrs. Perry.

Tableau, "Simply to the Cross I Cling."

Recitation—Selected, Mrs. L. C. Goodrich.

Piano solo, Mrs. Perry.

Tableau, "Love of a Fair Face."

Singing, Members of No. 14.

Tennysen Illustrated—"The Girl With the White Lily."

Reading, Miss Grace and Mamie Kananahan.

The Ghostly Chorus—"John Brown."

Shadow pictures—"Farmer Jones' Experience in a Barber Shop."

Piano duet, Miss Grace and Mamie Kananahan.

Electric Car Ordinance.

BE it ordained by the Court of Common Council of the City of New Haven, that Section 1. No street railway car shall move or be moved through any street or part of any street within a radius of one mile from the City Hall at a speed greater than the rate of ten miles an hour; beyond that radius at a speed greater than at the rate of twelve miles an hour.

Section 2. Upon approaching a crossing, or an intersecting street upon level and descending curves within a radius of one mile of City Hall, the motorman shall shut off the power and have the car under control until the opposite crossing has been passed.

Section 3. No street railway car shall be allowed to pass another car standing on a parallel track in the same street to receive or deliver passengers without coming to a full stop to allow the safe ingress and egress of such passengers.

Section 4. No person (except an employee when necessary) shall be allowed to stand on the platform of any street railway car propelled by motive power other than horses, with the motorman or person having control of the speed of such car.

Section 5. Every street railway company operating street railway cars propelled by any motive power other than horses, shall equip every such car with good and effective fenders and of such design and type as shall be recommended by the committee on ordinance and approved by the Court of Common Council.

Section 6. Every motorman or person having control of the speed of any street railway car propelled by any motive power other than horses, shall strike a gong or bell several times upon approaching the crossing of a street or the intersection of a street, and within one hundred feet of such crossing or intersection, and shall strike a gong or bell at such other places and times as to fully and safely warn any and all persons in the vicinity, and shall keep a vigilant lookout for all persons and all teams, carriages and vehicles of all kinds.

Section 7. Every street railway company shall post copies of this ordinance in conspicuous places in each of its car houses so that they can be conveniently and plainly seen and read by such company's employees, and shall also post in a conspicuous place in each of its cars a copy of said ordinance so that it can be conveniently and plainly seen and read by the patrons of such street railway company.

Section 8. Any motorman or person violating any of the provisions of Sections one, two, three, four and six, and any member of any corporation who causes any motorman to violate the provisions of any of said Sections shall be fined not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one hundred dollars for each offense.

Section 9. Any street railway corporation or person operating street railways within the City of New Haven who shall violate any of the provisions of Sections five and seven shall be fined not less than five nor more than one hundred dollars for each offense.

Section 10. This Ordinance, except Section five, shall take effect thirty days after its passage and Section five shall take effect three months after a style and design of fender is recommended by the committee on ordinance and approved by the Court of Common Council as provided therein.

In Board of Aldermen, May 6, 1895, passed by a majority vote of all Aldermen present and absent.

In Board of Councilmen, May 13, 1895, passed by a majority vote of all Councilmen present and absent.

Approved May 21, 1895.
To take effect May 29, 1895.
A true copy of record.
Attest: RICHARD F. LYON, City Clerk.
